GENERAL INFORMATION:

The RAYS Pendant from Lola Lighting is a contemporary lighting fixture that draws inspiration from the radiating beauty of sunlight. Featuring a striking arrangement of slim metal rods extending outward from a central core, RAYS creates a dynamic burst effect that brings energy and sophistication to any space. The RAYS pendant accommodates E12 light sources, positioned centrally to emit both direct and diffused light. It is designed to be both decorative and functional, making it ideal for residential living and dining areas as well as hospitality environments. With its sculptural form and versatile finish options, the RAYS Pendant adds a bold, radiant statement to modern interiors.
