GENERAL INFORMATION:

The VERSI Pendant is a modern reinterpretation of classic suspended lighting. Floating gracefully from the ceiling, it combines a rounded diffuser with a sleek metal structure that feels both architectural and soft. The result is a pendant that acts as a focal point, yet never overpowers the space. Ideal for placement above dining tables, kitchen islands, or entryways, the pendant offers warm, diffused illumination while bringing visual interest and depth to a room. Available in a range of finishes including matte black, satin brass, and powder-coated bronze, the VERSI Pendant offers flexibility to complement a wide variety of interior styles—from minimalist to eclectic.
