GENERAL INFORMATION:

The NOXA pendant light by Lola Lighting is a striking vertical fixture crafted from natural alabaster, offering a soft, diffused glow that highlights the stone's unique veining and texture. Designed for modern and sophisticated interiors, this pendant operates with a G9 bulb (1 x max. 9W, not included), supports 110–120V, and features an IP20 protection rating with Class I classification, making it suitable for dry indoor spaces. Measuring 3.54" (9 cm) in diameter and 11.42" (29 cm) in height, it features a sleek cylindrical form and comes with a black cable. NOXA's minimalist elegance and natural material variation make it an ideal choice for residential or commercial applications such as entryways, dining areas, or lounges.
